A proposal to amend Article III, Section 4 of the Charter of the City of Vermilion to provide for the election of President of Council and President Pro Tem as follows effective January 1, 2014:

The Council shall at the time of the organizational meeting, choose one of its members as President of Council and another of its members as the President pro tem, who shall preside at meetings of Council in the absence of the President of Council. The President of Council elected at the November 2007 election shall serve a term of two (2) years. When the Mayor is absent or inaccessible or for any reason is unable to perform his duties as Mayor, then the President of Council shall become the acting Mayor, and while so acting shall have and exercise all of the powers of the Mayor, but he shall not thereby cease to be a member of Council. In the event the President of Council is absent or inaccessible or for any reason is unable to perform his duties as acting Mayor, the President pro tem of Council shall become the acting Mayor, and while so acting shall have all the powers and duties of the Mayor, but he shall not thereby cease to be a member of Council. In case of a vacancy of the office of Mayor, which vacancy occurs more than 180 days prior to the next regular Municipal election at which the Mayor is to be elected, a special election will be held at the earliest period allowed by law to elect a Mayor to fill the unexpired term of the person who vacated the office of Mayor. Until such special election is held, or if the office of Mayor becomes vacant 180 days or less immediately prior to the next regular Municipal election at which the Mayor is to be elected, the President of Council shall become the acting Mayor, and while so acting shall have and exercise all the powers of the Mayor, but he shall not thereby cease to be a member of Council. If the office of President of Council becomes vacant, any vacancies in Council shall first be filled in the manner provided in Section 6 of this Article, and then a new President of Council shall be chosen by Council.

The President of Council shall have all the powers, duties, functions, obligations and rights of any other member of Council, including the right to vote; shall preside at all meetings of Council; and shall appoint the various committees of Council, coordinating the work of the various committees appointed by him.

44 PROPOSED CHARTER AMENDMENT

VERMILION CITY CHARTER AMENDMENT 2

A Majority Affirmative Vote Is Necessary For Passage.

A proposal to amend Article V, Section V-1 of the Charter of the City of Vermilion by adding Section V-1.1 Removal as follows effective January 1, 2012:

SECTION V-1. General Provisions.

A Department of Public Safety, a Department of Public Service, a Department of Finance, and a Department of Law are hereby established, and this Council shall provide by ordinance for their organization. The Council may establish by ordinance additional departments or divisions and, except for the Department of Public Service, Public Safety, Finance, and Law, may abolish departments or divisions. With the exception of the Departments of Public Service, Finance, and Law, the Council may combine departments or divisions as it may deem necessary and may authorize one person to be the head of two or more of such departments or divisions.

SECTION V-1.1. Removal

The Council may remove the heads of the Department of Public Safety, Public Service, Finance, and Department of Law for gross misconduct, or malfeasance, misfeasance, or nonfeasance in or for disqualification for office, or for conviction while in office of a crime involving moral turpitude, or for a violation of oath of office, or for failure to provide Council with requested information, materials, or support that is necessary for Council to conduct its business. Such removal may only be initiated by a written complaint signed by at least five members of Council. Council shall convene a meeting of its committee of a whole to hear said complaint for removal. Said removal shall not take place without the concurrence of two thirds of the members of Council nor until the Department head in question has been notified in writing of the complaint against him/her at least 30 days in advance. Council may, by rule, establish additional procedures regarding such removal proceedings not in conflict with this provision of the Charter.
